IWG RECEIVES A GULFSTREAM “TOP PERFORMER” AWARD FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

8 April 2008

Burnaby, BC, Canada – For the second consecutive year, International Water-Guard Industries Inc. (IWG) is pleased to announce it has been awarded a “Top Performer Award” by Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation as one of its Suppliers of the Year. According to Gulfstream, the award recognizes IWG for its achievements in Quality, Reliability, and Overall Performance as a supplier of Water Treatment Units for Gulfstream’s leading business jets.

The presentation was made at Gulfstream’s 2008 Suppliers Conference in Savannah, Ga. IWG Vice-President and General Manager Gerald Eiers and Vice-President Engineering Brian Ulrich were on-hand to receive the award from Gulfstream’s Jim McQueeney, Vice-President, Materials and Doreen Gonzalez, Senior Purchasing Manager, Final Phase.

“This award follows the recent completion of our Memorandum of Agreement with Gulfstream for supply of IWG equipment. Both the award, and completion of the agreement, recognize the many years we have been working together,” said David Fox, IWG’s president and CEO. “Receiving the award for two years in a row was an unexpected and pleasant surprise to us. Both our teams work well together, and we will continue building on this.”

International Water-Guard is a Canadian aerospace company focusing on aircraft potable water treatment and full water system solutions. IWG has expertise in all aspects of water treatment, and has the products and know-how to provide high quality water for passengers and crew, and light weight, space saving solutions for the aircraft operator.
